HIGHLIGHTS

On July 4th, a traffic stop led to the arrest of a 77-year-old Howard City man for Operating While Impaired. The deputy had contact with the man earlier in the evening and was aware he was highly intoxicated. A call to Central Dispatch indicated the man was driving in the Township. The deputy located the man a short time later.

On July 9th, a report of a break in at a local restaurant was reported. The case remains under investigation.

Respectfully submitted,

Michael J. Williams
