HIGHLIGHTS

On November 16th, a domestic was reported in the 6000 block of North Amy School Road. At the conclusion of the investigation as the deputy was leaving, a 29-year-old female from Howard City who was at the home and involved in the domestic began to push up against the deputy. The deputy repeatedly instructed her to stop and created space between the two of them however the woman continued to come at the deputy. The deputy, after giving warnings, took the woman into custody for resisting and obstruction a police officer. The woman continued to resist until she was placed in handcuffs. Intoxication appears to have been a contributing factor in the event.

Respectfully submitted,

Michael J. Williams
