HIGHLIGHTS

On October 17th, a breaking and entering was reported in the 8000 block of North Daggett Road. A pole barn was entered and tools were taken. There are no suspects at this time.

On October 31st, a forgery investigation was initiated in the 20000 block of West Church Road. The forgery involved the selling of a vehicle earlier in the year and the title indicated there was a lien holder however, the lien holder denies signed the title to clear the lien and in fact there was still money owed to the lien holder. The investigation is ongoing and may be turned over to the Kent County Sheriff's Office.
