HIGHLIGHTS

On September 17th, a report of an individual in violation of concealed weapons laws was reported. The incident began when a bar patron left the bar, went to his motorcycle, and returned to the bar with a wadded up shirt. The man, a 34-year-old from Holton, handed the wrapped up item to the waitress and left the bar. The waitress quickly determined the shirt was used to conceal a handgun. It was reported the man was also intoxicated at the time of the event. Eventually, the man was tracked down and claimed to be leaving the weapon at the bar so the owner of the gun could retrieve the weapon. The prosecutor's office is currently reviewing the report for charges.

Respectfully submitted,

Michael J. Williams
