HIGHLIGHTS

During the month there were two felonious assaults reported. One involved a utility provider being ordered off an individual's property and a handgun displayed. There were no injuries. The other involved two individuals stopping on US131 and during the course of an argument, a knife was pulled. Only minor injuries were sustained and the suspect stole the victim's car and fled to Lake County where he was arrested. Both reports are under review at the prosecutor's office.

Respectfully submitted,

Michael J. Williams
